

Two Thousand Guests Witness Wedding of Hassidic Families

When Miss Miriam Adler daughter of Rabbi and Mrs. Eliezer Adler of 340 No. Edinburgh Ave., became the bride of Rabbi Abraham

MRS. ABRAHAM HOROWITZ

Horowitz, son of Grand Rabbi and Mrs. Horowitz of Brooklyn, Sunday night at Congregation Ohel David, more than two thousand persons crowded into the playground of the former Beverly-Fairfax Community Center, 7969 Beverly Blvd., to witness the rites which united two centuries-old Hassidic rabbinic dynasties.

More than 100 Rabbis coming from all parts of the country participated in the unique rituals, and the huge crowd enjoyed the refreshments, the Hassidic dances, and the rarely seen Hassidic marriage ceremonies.

Fathers of both bride and groom officiated at the ceremonies.
